Education and Training Fees & Policies for Individual and Company CO-OP classes

1700 W. Washington Street, Suite 403, Phoenix, AZ 85007

The Arizona State Mine Inspector's (ASMI) Education and Training staff conduct the mandatory federal Mine Safety and Health Administration (MSHA) safety training classes for the Arizona mining community. These classes are provided for mining companies and their employees, contractors, vendors, state, county and city workers who enter mine operations and also for individuals seeking employment at mine properties. In January of 2010 ASMI implemented a nominal training fee and polices program for this service and in 2011 revised their training curriculum to provide separate cooperative and private one day Annual Refresher and three day New Miner classes. The ASMI Education and Training staff members hold a true commitment to safety and the presentation of updated, professional and inspiring safety training sessions.
